

LICENSING ANNOUNCEMENTS

MARCH 21, 2008

Filename Descriptions in LPRs

Primary Audience: DPV™ and DSF²™ Licensees

What: The DPV and DSF² Licensee Performance Requirements have been updated to include filename descriptions for each of the products. This new language is reflected in Exhibit E (DPV LPR) and Exhibit I (DSF² LPR).

Additionally in the DSF² LPR, the 'DSF² Product CD Media' (formerly Exhibit E) was removed. All subsequent Exhibits were renumbered.

When: Present

Impact: Licensees will have descriptions of the files contained in the DPV and DSF² Products included in the LPRs.

What you need to do: Licensees should review this new language in the appropriate LPRs.

Reminders

- If you have personnel changes, please forward an updated Key Personnel Form to ncsc.dpv@usps.gov or fax it to 901-681-4579.
- For any changes made to licenses and supporting documents, check the Modifications document under the appropriate product name.
