Save the Date: Webinar on How to get Executive Mail Center Manager Certification at NPF

For the first time, National Postal Forum (NPF) attendees will have the ability to receive Executive Mail Center Manager (EMCM) certification at the National Postal Forum in Anaheim, CA, held May 17-20, 2015. This is an exclusive opportunity for NPF attendees! Instructors from the USPS National Center for Employee Development (NCED) will travel to the Forum and provide certification classes.

Join an hour webinar on March 4, 2015 at 1 p.m. (EST) to understand more about the program and how this certification provides a solid foundation in mail center management and a return on investment.

Speakers: Hear from Paul Warrick, Manager, National Center for Employee Development and Maureen Goodson, Executive Director, National Postal Forum

The EMCM course is a comprehensive training program that is designed for individuals who wish to develop Mail Center Management skills. It offers a certified designation that emphasizes professionalism in Mail Center Management. The course teaches skills needed to manage more effectively, boost productivity and cut costs. The program is sponsored by the USPS and has been developed by a professional committee with representatives from the mailing industry. To earn official certification, participants are required to attend all 14 planned sessions and pass an exam at the completion of each module.

The NPF and the USPS NCED have designed a program that allows EMCM trainees to also benefit from major NPF program elements, including:

- Sunday Events: National Area Focus Group and PCC Opening Session
- Monday Morning Opening General Session
- Technology Tuesday General Session
- Exhibit Hall
- Peer to Peer Roundtables
- Networking
- Partnership Luncheon

Limited space is available for the course. Preregistration is required to reserve your space. The fee for EMCM certification course is $170.00 with the purchase of a NPF full registration.

Webinar registration is required. Please see instructions to participate below:
