USPS Update on Fall Mailing Season Webinar Series

October 23, 2015 from 2:30PM to 3:30PM (EDT)

The Postal Service would like to update mailers on its fall mailing season readiness plans. Linda Malone, Vice President Network Operations, and her staff will present the remainder of several webinars over the next two months updating mailers on important information regarding fall mail conditions. The next webinar in the series will be held on October 23, at 2:30 p.m. (EDT). One additional webinar will be held on November 20, 2015. Please review information in the alert for instructions on how to participate in the next call.

In preparation for this busy time of year, the Postal Service has been adjusting plans to ensure that mailers have the necessary equipment, transportation, and resources for a successful season. The Postal Service has been working to ensure customer communication plans, mail processing, sort programs are in place and has expanded FAST appointments and has deployed additional equipment to manage volumes and to monitor cycle times.

The webinars are designed to give you up to date information and an opportunity to ask questions. If you have suggestions for topics and/or questions to submit in advance please do so by sending it to IndustryAlert@usps.gov.

The Postal Service is committed to working closely with our customers to help them plan their mailings throughout the Fall Mailing Season and we hope that you can join us.

Agenda topics will include:

- Service Performance
- Columbus Day Weekend Takeaways
- FAST Update
- MTE Update
- Moving Forward: Fall Mailing to Peak Season
- USPS Commitment
